PARTNER PROGRAM
C3 Solutions

Dear Partners and Customers!
This program has been designed with due regard to the best world's practice for convenient use in day-to-day operations. It is based on our main principles:
- Simplicity;
- Openness;
- Fairness.

We guarantee strict compliance with the established rules.

We classify IT market participants into four categories
- Experts include individuals, IT community members,
- Partners include legal entities purchasing C3 Solutions's products for their use for business purposes (resale, service provision, etc.),
- Technology Partners include legal entities involved into joint development or using C3 Solutions's products for designing own solutions,
- End Users include legal entities purchasing C3 Solutions's products for own consumption.

For maximum convenience of consumers of our products, regardless of their location, we implement our solutions via partner network restricting our direct interaction with end users.

Any company having stable financial position, being interested in development and promotion of the Russian technology may become a C3 Solutions partner.
